

Scripture:

PSALM 63

Key Question:

How does God satisfy our deepest needs and longings?

Questions Every Time:

Discuss these five questions and the deeper thinking questions in whatever order is most helpful for learning!

| CONTEXT | COMPREHENSION | EVALUATION | DEEP THINKING | APPLICATION |
|---|--|--|--|--|
| What else do we need to know to best understand this passage? | What's this passage saying? [face value] | What does this passage teach us? ...about God? life? ourselves? | How is this different from what the world teaches? | If you applied what you learn from this passage, how would your life look different? |

Questions For Deeper Thinking:

- What does it mean to say or declare, "O God, you are my God" (v. 1)? Have you made him YOUR God? How do you know?
- Have you ever felt like your relationship with God is a desert—dry and empty? (Maybe you feel that way right now.) According to the passage, how did David respond in a season like that?
- Look at verse 7, list some of the ways God has been your "help" throughout your life.
- How do we look to other things to satisfy our needs and longings? List some needs and longings you have—then find some verses that show how God meets those needs.
- What is our DEEPEST need? (See Ephesians 2:1-3) How did Christ satisfy our deepest need? (Eph. 2:4-10)

QUOTE

If we find ourselves with a desire that nothing in this world can satisfy, the most probable explanation is that we were made for another world. - C.S. Lewis
